Global citizens need a global education

For over 30 years, the University of Toronto (Hong Kong) Foundation Scholarships have expanded horizons for exceptional Hong Kong students, helping them study abroad at one of the world's best universities.

Nearly two-thirds of our Hong Kong scholars go on to pursue post-graduate degrees, and many build careers in fields as diverse as business, finance, economics, law, medicine, computer science, public policy, social work and urban planning. They live and work in Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom, Singapore, South Africa, China and Hong Kong.

Applying for a scholarship is simple and starts with an online form. Applicants are automatically considered for all Hong Kong Scholarships, and candidates will be guided through the application process to enter the program of their choice at the University of Toronto.

59% of alumni scholars have pursued post-graduate degrees.

Past scholars work in 11 different professional fields.

Scholars live and work in 15 countries.

A top-ranked university

Founded in 1827, the University of Toronto is Canada's top university with a long history of challenging the impossible and transforming society through the ingenuity and resolve of our faculty, students, alumni and supporters.

As one of the world's leading research universities, we bring together top minds from every conceivable background and discipline to collaborate on the world's most pressing challenges. Our community is a catalyst for discovery, innovation and progress, advancing knowledge and developing solutions that make a tangible difference around the globe.

We offer students an outstanding global education rooted in excellence, inclusion and close-knit learning communities. Students can choose from more than 700 undergraduate programs across three beautiful campuses and pursue their passions through a broad range of clubs and student-run organizations.

Students from Hong Kong have been coming to U of T for more than a century, and today, some 10,000 U of T graduates live in Hong Kong. Many of these alumni are successful leaders in business, finance, law, medicine and public service. Studying at U of T is your chance to join this incredible community.

Hong Kong Scholarships FAQ

Am I eligible for the Hong Kong Scholarships?

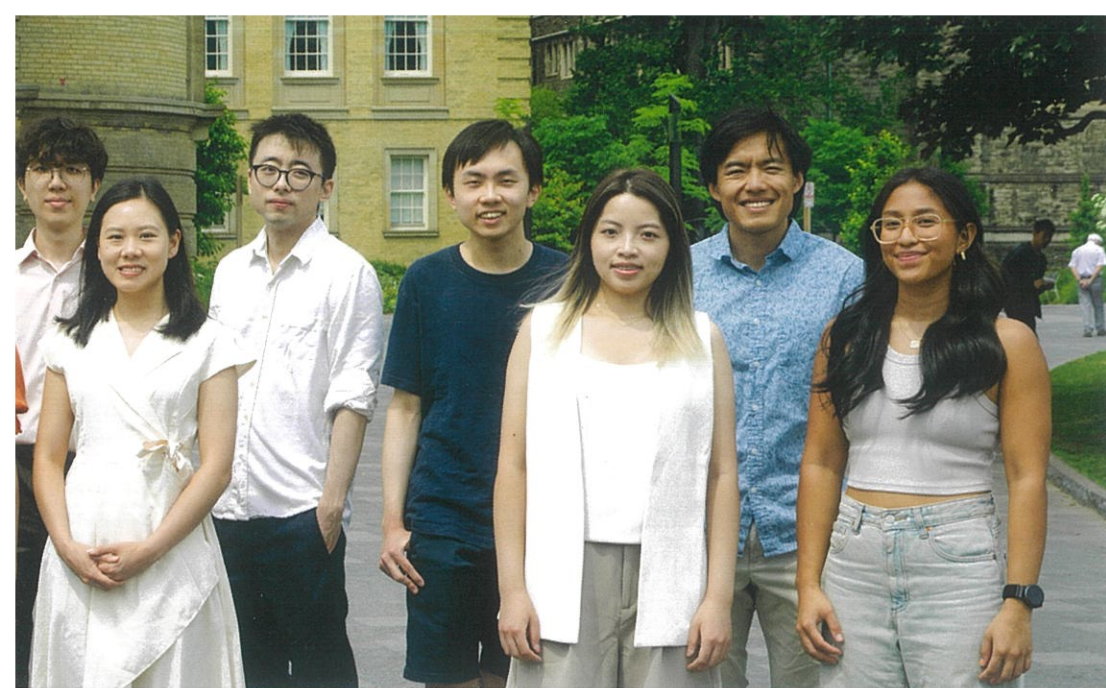

Applications are open to Hong Kong permanent residents who have completed or are in the process of completing their Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education (HKDSE) or equivalent. You do not require Canadian citizenship, landed immigrant status, permanent residency or any other claim to residence in Canada to apply for this award. However, you will need to apply for a permit to study in Canada.

Who is eligible for financial support?

Hong Kong Scholarships are intended for students whose families can provide some, but not all, funding for their U of T studies.

What makes a successful applicant?

Successful past applicants have shown strong academic results, personal initiative, community leadership and a genuine interest in living abroad.

What academic requirements do I need to be eligible?

- For students completing a HKDSE, you will need the completed diploma, including at least two elective subjects from categories A and/or C.
- For students completing an International Baccalaureate (IB), you will need the completed diploma including English HL or SL.
- For other educational systems, including AP and GCE, please visit: future.utoronto.ca/apply/requirements

If English is not your first language, you may be required to present proof of your fluency in English. U of T accepts a variety of International English language tests and qualifications.
