

Po Leung Kuk Tang Yuk Tien College
Library
2013-2014
Student's Book Sharing – F.3C Ma Sai Yu

Book : Horowitz Horror
Author : Anthony Horowitz
Publisher : Orchard Books

Within the sinister book, lies nine nasty stories that will chill you to the bone. My personal favorite is the first installment – Bath Night. The Martins, an ordinary family has their lives turned upside-down by nothing more than an old rusty bathtub. Turns out, this antique is possessed by a twisted serial killer who chops people up bits by bits in a bathtub. Whenever the young daughter, Isabel, steps into this seemingly harmless Victorian tub, she is immediately covered in sticky fresh blood. All she can see is a pale thin man in the mirror, staring at her with his creepy stone-cold eyes. What happens then? That's for you to find out. But I can tell you this much – it involves a monkey wrench and a nuthouse.

Horowitz Horror isn't just some scary tales. It is the nightmares that haunt children at night. It is the words of pure evil. It is the story of the biggest baddest. There is no doubt that this is the most thrilling horror story book I have ever read, and possibly the best. But before you begin a journey of dead bodies, dripping blood and dark secrets, I have to warn you – this book is not for the nervous or frail.

"Horowitz Horror" is now available in the school library.