

We are excited to share that our student Ian Chiu Yi Nap has been awarded the title of “The Most Outstanding Debater Award” in The 35th Sing Tao Inter-school Debating Competition, organized by Sing Tao Daily, The Standard and the Education Bureau. Ian has also bagged the titles of “Best Debater” and “Best Interrogative Debater” four times respectively in the preliminary, Quarter Final and Semi Final rounds of the contest.

Also, our English Debating Team members, Ian Chiu Yi Nap, Mandy Wong Ming Sum and Nicole Fung Ho Ching, have gained the overall Second Runner-up in the English Section of the abovementioned territory-wide debating tournament. Congratulations to them all!

Mr Ivan Tong, Chief Editor of The Standard, presents the Most Outstanding Debater Award to Ian Chiu.

Our debaters are honoured to receive the cheque from Mr Siu Sai Wo,
Chief Executive Officer of the Sing Tao News Corporation Limited.

Giving names on the stock market

'A real-name registration system should be implemented for Hong Kong's financial market to strengthen its supervision'. This statement and its greater implications were discussed in the 35th Sing Tao Inter-School Debating Competition.

Our students attend the prizing giving ceremony and take a group photo with the guests-of-honour and other awardees, which is featured by The Standard.
